CONFLICT OF INTEREST COMPLIANCE ARTICLE 4

As is standard in scholarly publishing, NCSBN's Journal of Nursing Regulation (JNR) requires its authors to disclose any potential conflicts of interest (COI). Although COI information has always been collected by our staff in order to support editors' review of the paper, it was not our standard practice to publish COI statements in each article. In this issue, JNR is retrospectively publishing the COI statements, which were collected with the below papers at submission, in order to make potential COI's transparent to readers, as well as editors.

Declarations of competing interest: The authors declare the following financial interests/personal relationships which may be considered as potential competing interests: Squires was a paid editor for the Journal of Nursing Regulation when this was published. All other authors have no conflicts of interest.
